

SPEAKERS PROFILES

Tim Ryan, DAC Beachcroft

Tim is national Head of DAC Beachcroft's Technology team. He is an experienced commercial lawyer, advising across a variety of leading edge matters in technology. Working across all sectors his clients include large companies and Tim provides guidance on enterprise-wide technology projects. He also works with many scale-ups supporting them with their

Peter Allchorne, DAC Beachcroft

Peter is an experienced civil litigation Partner, specialising in motor injury claims for a wide portfolio of clients, including large composites, mono-line insurers, MGAs and self-insured organisations. He also leads the firm's cross-class claims innovations R&D hub, 'Innovations Lab' and formerly headed up the firm's motor claims handling division.

Matt Elkington, PwC

Matt leads PwC's corporate Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) practice in the UK and has over 19 years risk advisory experience in the areas of enterprise and operational risk management, operational resilience, supply chain risk management, corporate governance, business continuity and crisis management, compliance, and insurance. He has worked with clients across a broad range of sectors including Oil & Gas, Petrochemicals, Metals & Mining, Power & Utilities, Retail & Consumer Goods, Life Sciences, Technology, Media & Telecoms, Manufacturing, Construction & Engineering, Transport, Real Estate, Public Sector and Financial Services in Europe, the Middle East, Asia and the US. Matt developed PwC UK's risk appetite and predictive risk monitoring methodologies and is currently leading development of our Operational Resilience market proposition.